If your injury employer has a policy with a licensed specialised insurer, where you read "WorkCover" and "Agent" also read "specialised insurer" and "approved agent of a specialised insurer".

Claim no.

- For help completing this form or for more information contact:
 - Your employer or the return to work coordinator at your workplace
 - Your employer's WorkCover Agent to find out who the Agent is request the details from your employer, check the If you are Injured poster at your workplace or call the WorkCover Information Centre on 13 10 50 cost of a local call
 - Your union.

As the worker you need to:

- Notify your employer as soon as possible that you've been injured at work and complete the injury register at your workplace.
- See your nominated treating doctor who may provide a WorkCover Certificate of Capacity and if so, give the original copy of the certificate to your employer.
 Complete a claim form if requested by your employer or their Agent.
- Read the statement on the back of this form that explains how your personal and health information will be collected and used.
- Answer all of the questions on this form. It is important to advise the Agent immediately of any changes of circumstances that impacts on the information provided in this form.
- Sign the authority to release medical information and worker's declaration on page 3 of this form. The form cannot be accepted without your signature.
- Keep a copy of all documents for your records (including a copy of this form).

• Give this form (when completed) to your employer as soon as possible after being injured. If you or your representative have difficulty giving this claim form to your employer, or your employer refuses to take receipt of the claim form, you can send it directly to the Agent or contact WorkCover on 13 10 50.

- Getting back to work
 - Talk to your nominated treating doctor about any necessary treatment for your injury, what parts of your work you can do and any medical restrictions that should apply. You can also encourage your nominated treating doctor to talk to your employer about any suitable duties that may be available.
 - Talk with your employer or return to work co-ordinator about developing a return to work plan. A return to work plan outlines the actions to be undertaken to assist you to return to work.
 - Talk to the Agent about what support is available to help you return to work and overcome your injury as quickly as possible.
 - Cooperate and comply with your return to work plan and the injury management plan developed for you by your employer's Agent. An injury management plan is developed to coordinate and manage any treatment / rehabilitation / retraining required to assist you to return to work.

Your employer's responsibilities:

- Your employer must send your completed claim form and any WorkCover Certificate of Capacity to the Agent within 7 days after receiving them from you.
- Pay you weekly payments if your claim is accepted and you have an entitlement.
- Offer suitable employment if practical and work with you to develop a return to work plan once your doctor has determined if any restrictions are necessary. Please note that there are penalties for providing false or misleading information in relation to this claim.
- Your employer's Agent will write to you and advise you if your claim is accepted or if further information is required.

A decision to accept or reject provisional liability for your claim will be made within 7 days of the Agent receiving notification of your injury. The acceptance of provisional liability is not an admission of full liability for your claim, but allows an Agent to make early payments to you for wages and medical expenses. To find out more about making a claim and what support is available to help you return to work, talk to the Agent, contact your union or the WorkCover Information Centre – 13 10 50 (cost of a local call). COLLECTION OF PERSONAL AND HEALTH INFORMATION TO MANAGE YOUR CLAIM

In processing your claim, the WorkCover Authority of New South Wales ("WorkCover") and any Agent acting on behalf of WorkCover in relation to your claim may collect personal and health information about you.

WorkCover is a statutory body established under the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998. WorkCover, acting for the Nominal Insurer, has appointed Agents to act on its behalf in managing workers' compensation policies and claims for compensation.

Personal and health information is collected about you on this form and may also be collected during the processing, assessing and management of your claim. It may be collected from your current, previous and future employers, other government agencies, credit reporting agencies, health service providers and other persons who can provide information relevant to the claim.

Personal and health information about you may also be collected by solicitors, private investigators, loss adjusters and other service providers acting on behalf of WorkCover or its Agents.

Personal and health information is collected for the purposes of enabling WorkCover or its Agents to process, assess and manage your claim and to verify any evidence you may submit in support of a claim. The information may also be used for one or more purposes listed in section 243 of the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 ("1998 Act"), for the purposes of legal proceedings arising under the 1998 Act or the Workers Compensation Act 1987, to assist with your rehabilitation and return to work and to assist WorkCover and its Agents to better manage claims generally.

For the purposes of processing, assessing and managing your claim and for the purpose of any complaint or enquiry made by you to any authority, including the WorkCover Authority or the WorkCover Independent Review Officer (WIRO), WorkCover and its Agents may disclose personal and health information about you to each other and to the following types of organisations:

- Employees, contractors and agents of WorkCover and WorkCover's Agents.
- Your employers.
- Solicitors, medical practitioners and other health service providers, private investigators, loss adjusters and other service providers
- acting on behalf of WorkCover or its Agent in relation to the claim.
- The Workers Compensation Commission and Approved Medical Specialists.
- A court or tribunal in the course of proceedings under any of the Acts administered by WorkCover.
- Any other person, organisation or government agency authorised by you, or by law, including the WIRO and its employees or agents, to obtain the information.

Collection of this information may be required by the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 and the Workers Compensation Act 1987. If you do not provide any part or all of this information, your claim may not be accepted or processed. All information collected in this form will be held by WorkCover, or by the Agent managing your claim. If you do not know the contact details for the Agent managing your claim please refer to the WorkCover website (www.workcover.nsw.gov.au) or ring the WorkCover Information Centre on 13 10 50.

You may request access to personal and health information about you collected by WorkCover or its Agents, by contacting the Agent directly. You may also request the correction of any errors in the personal or health information held by WorkCover or its Agents.

- * If your injury employer is a licensed self-insurer, where you read "WorkCover" and "Agent" also read "self-insurer" and "approved agent of a self-insurer".
- * If your injury employer has a policy with a licensed specialised insurer, where you read "WorkCover" and "Agent" also read "specialised insurer" and "approved agent of a specialised insurer".
